TOUCHING NEW LIVES IN NEW WAYS

Ann is excited to minister to women as the Lord brings healing into their lives.

Dan and I have been really busy this spring and summer, touching new lives in new ways. Sharing my testimony at Christian Women's Job Corp opened the door for ministry to a number of women enrolled in their program. On August 9th, I will also speak at Cowboy Camp Meeting in Ingram, TX.

I work with a number of women each week in our home. In prayer ministry sessions we usually address painful emotions, the historical source of those emotions, the lies we believed about ourselves in the midst of those painful circumstances (which may have been traumatic or very simple), and then allow Jesus to tell us his truth about who we are. The process sounds almost too simple, but the healing that comes is powerful and amazing! People start walking in freedom.

One woman came, wrapped up in many things, but not in Christ Jesus. She recently wrote these words:

Dear God,

To know You is to love You, and I do. Help me move through each day knowing with all my heart that you are with me, and I need look no farther for ought else in the world. Help me fully sing the song you have for me. Help me do the work you have for me with a glad heart. Help me see You in all I meet, and to bring You to them. A . S .

AVAILABLE IN SEPTEMBER: Looking With New Eyes

"For the accuser of our brothers who accuses them before our God day and night, has been hurled down. They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony." Revelation 12:10-11

Looking With New Eyes is the "word of my testimony." It was written so that others might know that the accuser can be quieted as we allow the Lord to replace Satan's lies with His truth. The book contains original artwork created by Phil Bob Borman which visually enhances the concept of Jesus uprooting the lies.

A number of people have contributed to the book's completion by reading, editing and sharing their hearts. Here is one response:

I sat in prayer and looked at each page of this book with mixed emotions, reading through half of it in one sitting. It was hard to put down. I cried for the little girl who was hurt, I felt rage for the suffering you had to endure and yet I was inspired by your walk with the Lord. I felt victorious with your strength to overcome. You have a beautiful way of showing the loving arms of our Lord wrapped around you through all these days. Leigh

Dan teaching on prayer at a youth retreat at C-5 Ranch in Holt, TX.

One of the highlights of June was a youth retreat for thirty young people from a number of different churches at C-5 Ranch in Holt, TX. The theme for the retreat was "Heart Matters: Your Heart Matters to Jesus." Dan spoke on the issues of the heart, prayer and your heart, and did a pottery demonstration focusing of the healing of the heart. Hershel Reid led the youth in a powerful interactive presentation on "Purity of the Heart." It was a life changing weekend for youth and staff alike. Craig Van Ryswyk led the praise and worship for the weekend. Thanks go out to Don Chapman and the C-5 family for inviting us to use their beautiful ranch. Also thanks go to the retreat coordinators, Wendy Chapman and Emily Cosentino, for hosting this retreat where young people learned that their hearts really do matter to Jesus!

Prayer Requests

- Praise for Mable Brown's cancer free report from MALT Lymphoma
- Prayer warriors to pray with us daily
- Prayer for those who come to MHH for ministry
- Praise for continued financial provision
- Safety for Jude and Jane's return from Mexico in August

In June we attended a wedding in Dallas where we visited with six couples we had known in college. Some have been life-long friends. Others we had not seen for 35 years! Amazing!
